

SOLICITING NOMINATIONS FOR THE

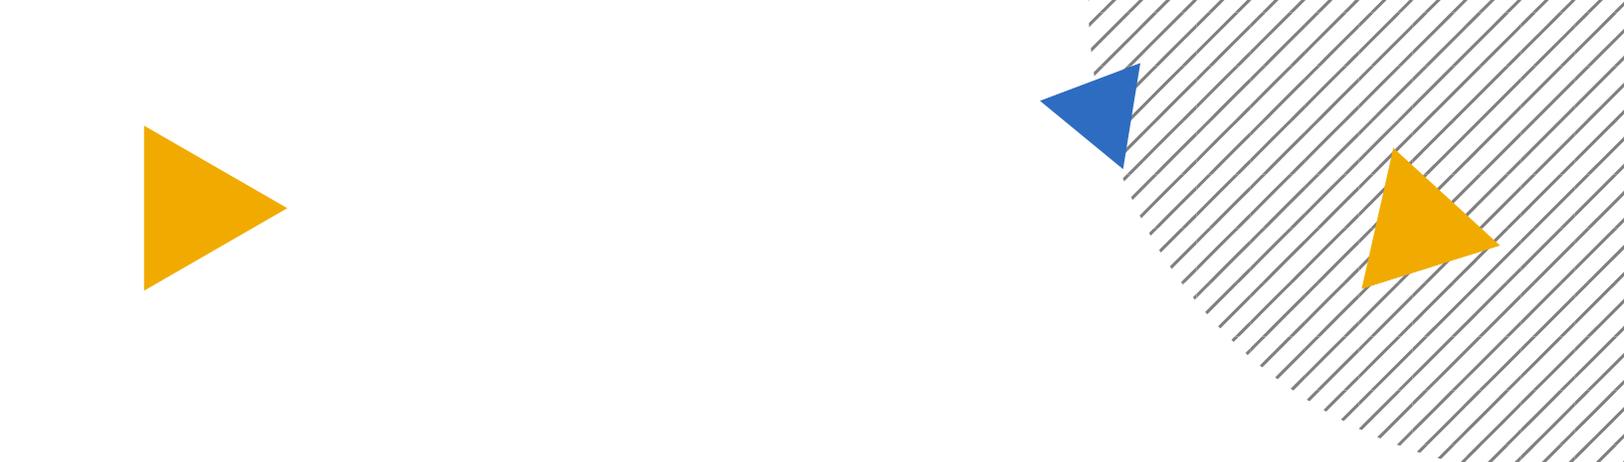

INNOVATIVE TEACHING AWARDS 2020

The Academy of Distinguished Teachers

APPLICATION DUE
MARCH 27, 2020

UCR | Undergraduate
Education

THE ACADEMY OF DISTINGUISHED TEACHERS INNOVATIVE TEACHING AWARD

NOMINATION DETAILS

Who's Eligible?

All ladder-rank Senate faculty members are eligible (this includes Professors of Teaching/LSOE). Two or more faculty members teaching as a unit may be nominated as a single team. Previous winners have been selected for their creation and implementation of high-impact teaching methods as well as by demonstrating exceptional passion in finding new and effective ways to help students learn.

The Innovative Teaching Award competition focuses on innovation in teaching. This is broadly defined as the transformation of classroom pedagogy and/or course curricula with original, inventive, and impactful approaches to instruction. Untenured faculty (including Assistant Professors of Teaching/LPSOE) can be nominated for this award.

For Specific Criteria

Visit <https://academyteachers.ucr.edu/> or
Contact Jack Eichler, ADT Chair at, jack.eichler@ucr.edu